Dear Mrs. Nichols:

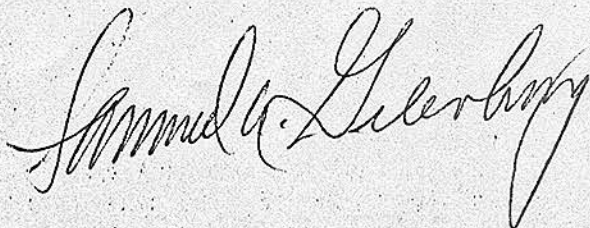

Thanks very much for your letter of July 6, 1970, and the check contained therein. The amount of the check is correct and constitutes full payment for any services rendered by me.

I presume payment has been made to you by the insurance company as per the award. One would wish you could have obtained a greater return, but there are many uncertainties in any controversy of this nature, and I, for one, am glad that it was finally resolved.

Mr. Greenspan's fee was very reasonable; I liked the way he took hold on the affair; and if I ever have the same type of problem, I am sure that I would apply for his services for myself or a client.

Thanks for giving me this opportunity to assist you. My best regards to Mr. Nichols and to your parents.

Very truly yours,
