To whom it may concern re. Greenspan Company:

It was no accident that Ken Crown and his brother came to our church on the evening of September 13, 1992, after a devastating fire engulfed our church in the early morning hours of that Sunday.

That evening we gathered our deacons together to discuss the restoration of our damaged buildings. Not having the skills and the know-how to deal with all of the complexities involved in a fire insurance claim, or to proceed in such a venture of rebuilding; we turned to Greenspan Company and in the ensuing months we never once regretted the agreement that we made with them.

The fire brought hundreds of thousands of dollars of damage to our property, and in the end everything was restored to better condition than it was previously because of the final settlement with Church Mutual Insurance.

Every member of our board recommends Ken Crown and his services for such a time as this. He and the general contractor, Tim McCracken performed a task that we shall never forget. I would not hesitate a moment in using their services again.

Sincerely,

Eugene J. Petersen
