To Whom It May Concern:

I felt it was important that someone be told how much I appreciate the tremendous help that Brian Molineaux was to us through this whole ordeal. We have received our checks after three months haggling with the insurance company and Brian is still offering suggestions and assistance. God Bless him.

He seem to anticipate what I was going to ask and furnish me with answers before I ask the question. I guess that comes from the knowledge gained over his years of experience.

When the fire first happened I had no idea where to turn. The insurance company was telling me I didn't have the coverage that was there in black and white on the policy. I knew that it was going to be a battle and I needed help.

I am convinced that without Brian's dedication to his job, his real concern, positive attitude and professionalism I would not have been able to make it through that catastrophic event.

Sincerely,

Yvonne Everett, Owner
