Dear Gentlemen:

Thank you for having the Washington Post article printed and framed for posterity. At least the article was good!

Please know how much I value our long friendship and business relationship. Hope you and your family are well.

Regards,

Dear Harvey,

This is a quick note to say thank you for the wonderful deli tray. We greatly appreciate your holiday gifts and the spirit in which they were given.

Thank you for your help in Fredricksburg and Vienna this year. While we hope not to have to call you, we know we can certainly count on you when we needed you.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Gary D. Rappaport, SCSM/SCMD/CLS
